RVH Auxiliary to make a special announcement

Royal Victoria Regional Health Centre's (RVH) Auxiliary has always been a huge supporter of the organization, raising funds to support patient care and most recently, fulfilling a generous pledge of $1.5 million to help equip the Cardiac Care Unit (CCU). And it looks like the Auxiliary is stepping up to the plate to improve patient care yet again.

Please join Janice Williams, president of the RVH Auxiliary, Janice Skot, RVH president and CEO, Kirsten Parker, chair of the RVH Board of Directors, Arlette Utton, chair of the RVH Foundation and other guests for a very special announcement from the Auxiliary.
